Meet the U.S.Agent! John Walker — the former vigilante called Super-Patriot, who, for a time, took over as Captain America from Steve Rogers — is back! But first the Agent must pass a deadly test — in combat against the Iron Monger! But that's just half the story...literally! While U.S.Agent and his former partner, Battlestar, begin a new chapter in their heroic careers, Cap hunts for the mechanical Machinesmith — and finds more than he bargained for in the return of the Sleeper! Thousands of years before the dawn of Conan, barbarian tribes rose across the Thurian continent, threatening the civilizations whose crumbling city walls still stood against them. In this ruthless age, there rose a man—an exile, no less—who would come to rule mighty Atlantis in the years before it crashed beneath the waves. This man was Kull and a host of Marvel's greatest talents would chronicle his saga—his exile and savage youth; his exploits on the high seas; his rise through the gladiatorial pits and military ranks; his reign as king; and his epic battles with the skull-faced sorcerer Thulsa Doom. Experience Kull's complete black-and-white magazine tales in this Omnibus volume, all painstakingly restored from the highest fidelity materials in Marvel's archives.
